Dear President Napolitano,

I read your "University of California Statement of Principles in Support of Undocumented Members of the UC Community", dated November 30, 2016. Your commitment to spending scarce resources to finance people illegally present in the United States is unacceptable and a flagrant misuse of taxpayer money. This is an insult to Americans and legal immigrants who pay your salary.

I assure you that, in the next session of Congress, those who receive and spend federal dollars in a manner that includes people illegally present in our country will find it difficult to obtain those funds.

It may be prudent for you to consider that approximately 50% of the University of California's research funding is supported by federal taxpayers' dollars before pledging non-compliance with federal law.

Yours sincerely,
